

Celebration of Discipline Discussion Questions – Week 5 & 6

1. The Discipline of Solitude

1. What does solitude mean to you?
2. What are some of the outward manifestations of inward solitude?
3. What distinguishes the disciplined from the undisciplined?
4. Silence puts a stopper on all self-justification. Why is that important?
5. Where are your favorite places to find small moments of solitude?

2. The Discipline of Submission

1. What is the purpose of the disciplines?
2. Name some of the benefits of submission.
3. What does self-denial mean to you?
4. Describe the difference between self-denial and self-contempt?
5. Name the seven acts of submission. Measure yourself in those areas to determine if improvements are needed. If so, list some ways to be more committed in each area.

3. The Discipline of Service

1. The author references John 13:14-15, when Jesus washed the disciples' feet. Discuss the last time you went above and beyond for those you serve. What was their response?
2. What are some differences between self-righteous service and true service?
3. The author discusses how Paul freely gave up his rights, for his slavery to Christ. Therefore, the fear of being taken advantage of and stepped on is justified. Do you think as Christians this perception should be adopted, why or why not?
